LOCAL MISCELLANY. MISSING PERSONS FOUND.

Missing Persons found.

Fiorence Wagner, the child of nine years who has several times rin away from her home at No. 167 East One-hundred-and-ninth-st., was found late yesterday at the house of Mrs. Lottic Irving, a friend of the Wagners, at No. 292 East Ninety-seventh-st. On Tuesday last she went out to play with her young brother about 11 a. m. She sent her brother home later, and passed the afternoon in riding on a sied drawn by a goat, in company with another little girl. They went to the Park and then returned to Fifth-ave. Florence, about dark, went to Mrs. Irving's and stayed for a while, when Mrs. Irving sent her to Third-ave., in company with a servant, giving her five cents and instructing the servant to put Florence on the car. Florence let.three or four cars pass, refusing te geton, and then the servant left her. The child went to a liquor-shop near by and got 5 cents more, wandered around for a time, and then returned to Mrs. Irving, saying: "Our house is full of people; my consits and uncles and aunts are there, and there is no place for me to sleep except on the floor." This was about 10 o'clock. Florence at first refused to go to bed, saying she would sit up in a chair or sleep on the floor, but finally yielded to Mrs. Irving's wishes. Mrs. Irving regarded the girl's story as true, but wondered that the child was allowed to stay away from home so long. When Florence was taken home yesterday, she said with some tdefiance: "Well, I had a bully time."

Thomas W. Emmous, eighty-two years old, for whom an alarm was seut out by the police on Thursday at 9 p. m., returned to his home. No. 245 West Twentieth-st, a half hour later. At 3 p. m. on Thursday he went to Station C, at Bank and Hudson-sts., to buy stamps worth $2. He lost his way in teturning, and wandered about the streets until 9 p. m., when he was seen at Twentieth-st, and Eighth-ave. by a policeman, and taken home. He had lost the stamps.

TELEGRAPH AND CABLE MATTERS.

The Executive Committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company at a meeting yesterday postponed the reopening of the transfer books to January 25. The recent order of Judge logsaham in the case of William S. Williams permitted the transfer of all stock excepting such of the increased stock as has been adjudged to be issued illegally, but the Umon Trust Company, the transfer agent, called the attention of the committee to the impossibility of its making transfers according to the decision without incurring a responsibility that did not belong to it. The committee voted that the transfer books should not be reopened until January 25, when, it is expected, the question of the withdrawal of the order will be passed upon by the Court. The Western Union Company will to-day reduce its toils between New-York and certain Eastern points to 25 cents. The purpose of the reduction was said by officers of the company to be merely a readjustment of the schedule rates to the East. The reduction makes a uniform 25 cent rate as far East as Eath, Bangor and Augusta, Mc.

FEARING AN EPIDEMIC OF SMALL-POX.

Information was sent to the Sanitary Bureau on Thursday afternoon that Mary Kelleher, nineteen years old, was ill with small-pox at No. 2,224 Second-ave. Dr. McChesney, of the Vaccinating Corps, went to the house yesterday, and in tracing the disease he learned that I homas Mahon, a carpenter boarding in the house, was afflicted also. Mahon became a boarder there about six months ago. On Sunday, December 31, he became ill, and a few blotches appeared on his face. No physician was called to attend him, and he was able to leave the house on the following Wednessiay. He had not work and he went to several places on subsequent days, spending much of his time in liquor stores near his boarding house. He also visited the family of Jeremah Kelicher, at No. 2,228 Secondave. Last Sunday he attended church in One-hundred-and-seventecth-st., between Fourth and Lexington-aves. Previous to his illness he spent a might with a friend, Daniel Coakley, at No. 616 Water-st. He also worked in a tailor-shop at Sixthave, and Fifty-fourth-st., where some repairs were in progress. Dr. McChesney was not able to discover where Mahon caught the small-pox, and no person except Miss Kelleher was known yesterday to have been infected by him. Miss Kelleher and Mahon were sent to the Riverside Hospital.

The members of the Vaccinating Corps were engaged all day in vaccin ting persons who were known to have been exposed. It is feared at the Sanitary Bureau that an epidemic of small-pox might be caused in the city unless unusual precautions were taken to prevent a nuther spread of the disease. Manon was in the most contagious stage of the disease when he went about the city.

The Arbitration Committee of the Producs Exchange yesterday rendered a decision upon the case of A. D. Straus & Co. against Seager Brothers which had been submitted to it. Straus & Co. made a contract with Seager Brothers, agents of several ocean freight lines, the latter agreeing to carry 474 tierces of lard to Europe upon a certain steamer in December. The contracts were dated corrected to the steamer's pier before the time for shipment. Seager Brothers failed to fulfil the contract, and on January 3 Straus & Co. learned that their goods were stril upon the pier. They then brought sunt against Seager Brothers for their loss on the contract. It was averred that Seager Brothers had contract. It was averred that Seager Brothers had contract. As the case is considered a test, there being similar ones in view, much evidence was taken. The committee decided that Seager Brothers should pay to Straus & Co. $1,498-21 damages for non-fainlment of centract, with the addition of $80 costs for investigation. As the laws recognize the authority of the committee as equal to that of the highest courts, the case cannot be appealed from.

LARGE MORTGAGES RECORDED.

LARGE MORTGAGES RECORDED.

A deed was recorded in the Register's Office yesterday whereby the Charter Oak Life Insurance conveyed to Joseph A. Dunn the property at Nos. 38, 40 and 42 Broadway and that in the rear, Nos. 49, 51 and 53 New-st. The consideration was the sum of $1, and the assumption of mortgages, with which the real estate is encumbered, for $200,000. Mortgages against the property were also filed for record, showing that Mr. Dunn secured a loan of $200,000 for six months from the insurance company and an additional one of $100,000 from A. L. Meyer, payable in six months.

Three mortgages, given by Ira E. Doying and his write to W. Bronson, amounting to $216,007, on real estate situated at the southwest corner of Madisonave, and Sixty-third-st., were also recorded. These were dated October 18, 1882, and are payable on demand.

Property on the north side of Eighty-fifth-st., some of which extends to Eighty-sixth-st., was by instruments recorded yesterday mortgaged to various persons for sums amounting in all to $146,814. Of this, more than half is advanced by the trustees of the London and Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company.

TESTIFYING AGAINST JOHN KENNY.

TESTIFYING AGAINST JOHN KENNY. Testimony against John Kenny, the bill—poster, who is on trial in Brooklyn for murder in the first degree, was given yesterday by Police Superintendent Campbell, who said that Kenny told him that he received by mail the letter asking for tickets found near the body of the murdered man, and after opening it, threw it upon a table and never saw it sgain. When asked about his pistol, Kenny said he had not carried it for four months and that it was loaded and concealed where no one could find it. Police Inspector Jewett teld him he found a pistol in a closet, at No. 420 Fulton-st., concealed above the false ceiling. Herman H. Kille identified the pistol as one that Kenny sent to him to have repaired a year ago. Policeman Bloomfield testified that he saw Kenny coming out of No. 420 Fulton-st. at 1:25 on the morning of the murder a few minutes after it took place. Kenny was also seen near the place a few minutes later by Edward McMahon.

TROY GAMBLERS PLUCKED.

About one hundred "sperting" men of Troy, N.Y., and of this city, visited Staten Island on Thursday might to witness a cocking main between Troy and Long Island birds. Spectators were charged $5 ministion, and the conditions of the match were $50 on each battle and $250 upon the main. Thirteen battles were fought, the contest lasting for nine hours. The birds from Troy were worsted in nearly every battle, their backers losing large amounts of money.

The main was decided in the first eight battles. Long Island winning all but the third. According to the agreement, however, the remaing five contests were continued, the nin-h victory falling to Long Island. In the tenth contest, the bird from Troy broke his antagannst's back, but by his failure to follow up his advantage gave the battle to Long Island. The decision of the referee was the cause of a fight, and little importance was attached to the remaining contests.

WHAT MR. ESTERBROOK IS DOING. WHAT MR. ESTERBROOK IS DOING.

Inspector Esterbrook did not send out any notices to hotel owners yesterday. He spent most of the day in studying the reports of examiners and the accompanying plans of hotels which had been examined. It was said at the Bureau of Buildings that he would probably send out a number or notices today. Mr. Esterbrook has received visits from several inventors of patent fire-escapes this week, and he complained yesterday that much of his time had been wasted in answering their questions. He had been asked to permit the owners of notels to make use of portable or folding ladders instead of stationary fire-escapes, but in all cases he has refused.

MR. ISELIN'S PROJECTED CLUB. Adrian Iseliu, the banker doing business at No. 48 Wall-st., recently purchased a fine brick building from the Westchester Insurance Company in the village of New Rochelle. He intends to have a free club house, with all the modern conveniences for the innocent enjoyment of the young people of that village. The first story will be devoted to billiard, smoking and reading rooms. The second or third floor will be fitted up for a free library, to be kept open all day and during the eveniug, including Sundays, for both men and women. A portion of the main floor is now occupied as a savings bank which Mr. Iselin established about a year ago.

"Never was there such a monstrous anomaly as giving to such men the right to nominate a railway commissioner. And what has it resulted in! Whom have they nominated! Why, a nobedy—a man like themselves, a puppet, whose votes they can control. So long as these peoplé deluged us with pamphets whose arguments were as thin as the paper they were printed on, no great harm was done, but when the State Legislature permitted them to run a bill through retaining this patronage in their hands it was time for the press to interfere.

THE NEWSPAPER WORLD.

The new weekly Life is understood to aim at wit without coarseness, reduced satire without emasculation; in short, the production of a bright journal which shall appeal to a more cultured class than does any "comic" weekly which we have at present. It is apparent that the young editors have taken upon themselves a serious task. Thus far Life appears to be a somewhat matured edition of The Harvard Lampoon, and no doubt it will be cuthuslastically received at Cambridge. But that a paper whose strong nold is supposed to be humor can succeed by relying upon its reading matter, and making its illustrations a matter of so slight attractiveness, has been rendered proolematical by the failures of past years. Life reveals in its pages something of the freshness of college days, and it is certainly a wholesome publication. It is to be hoped that its efforts to be "not too humorous" may not reduce it to the general drearlness of Loudon Punch. But from the fassiliar names like those of Mr. Laturop, and the bright young author of "Little Tin Gods on Wheels," which appear in the list of contributors, the pages of Life should be well worth perusal. A paper which can attain by force of merit to what Life has marked out for itself would be a welcome addition to our journalism, and we trust that Life may live up to its own ideal.

RELIEVED AND CURED BY DR. J. A. SHERMAN'S

without the injury inflicted by the use of trusses. No opera-tion : simply by external local applications, both mechanical and medicinal, made daily by the patient, who can perform any kind of labor during the treatment with safety from the danger of inflamed rupture and without interfering with the cure.

Mr. J. W. Baker's Statement. I called at your office, as your books will show. Dec. 8, 880, and received treatment for a very had rupture, from thich I had suffered for nine year. I could easily insert the mis of three fingers into the opening. I used your appliance and curative application only nine months, when I found ryself radeally cured, since which time I have lain the apparance as de, no longer feeling the need of its use. My age,
